

Please note that credits acquired for clearly accepted in the Major preparatory course

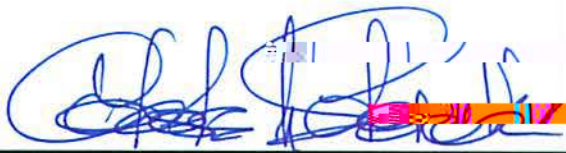

CCSF students may apply using the standard AUP application for transfer admission. CCSF students expecting IGETC certification and applying for guarantee have their application fee waived.

American students AUP application requirements for programs. American students also Smart Option private loan to bridge a gap in funding or to substitute for required tuition grants to transfer students based on a combination of financial need (as determined on financial aid application) and academic strength (based on the application for admission). Awards can be as much as 30% or possibly even 50% of tuition. In exceptional cases Scholar Awards, carrying a 75% tuition abatement.

This with months' written advance notice, by either institution

Deanna Abma, Art

Celeste Schenk, President, The American University of Paris

Nov 15, 2017

Marc Montreard, Vice President for Academic Quality, Operations & Student Services, The American University of Paris