

District Response – Article 13 – Assignment and Scheduling

June 20, 2023

13.A. - F. no change

~~13.G. Assignment of Overload and Overload Compensation In the District's Automotive/Trade Skills Department~~

~~1. Automotive Department full-time faculty members are not entitled to a guaranteed overload/extra pay assignment.~~

~~2. Available overload/extra pay assignments, as determined by management, shall be made on a rotational basis among qualified Automotive faculty members, starting with the most senior-qualified faculty member. Consistent with the Faculty Handbook, (1) overload assignments shall~~

- c. Faculty may be assigned to evaluation committees that require observations of in-person activities.
 - d. Full-time faculty with certain professional responsibilities may need to be in-person to conduct that work.
4. Full-time faculty will not be given a fall or spring schedule that consists exclusively of distance education classes or other assignments designated by management as available to be done off-campus. Exceptions to this requirement may be granted by the appropriate Vice Chancellor. Any such decision shall be on an individual case-by-case appraisal. Any decision(s) are non-precedent setting and non-grievable.
5. Part-time faculty will not normally be given a fall or spring schedule that consists exclusively of distance education classes or other assignments designated by management as available to be done off-